OUR NEIGHBORS.

Hiram C. Gordon has received his certificate of election from the city council of Huntington and qualified as Mayor.

The Paintsville Herald issued a very creditable industrial edition on the 6th inst. It was profusely illustrated and was complete in every detail.

Lewis Tanner, a 15-year old boy, fell off the pilot of an engine in the yards of the N. & W. R'y at Williamson a few days ago and was badly hurt. His collar bone was broken and he sustained a severe wound on his head.

Miss Mary Bartholomew left this morning for Phelps, Pike county, to teach in the Presbyterian Academy, of which Rev. A. Erickson is professor, and Miss Mary Boggs a teacher—Cattelsburg Items, Independent.

A "recount" of the vote of the recent city election in Huntington was made and Ensign (Democrat) was counted out of the office of Mayor. He had won on the face of the returns by ten votes. Hiram Gordon was his opponent.

It is officially announced at Washington that the president has decided to appoint former Gov. George W. Atkinson, of West Virginia, to the vacancy on the bench of the United States court of claims, made vacant by the death of Lawrence Widon.

Uncle Green Rule returned from Cattelsburg Tuesday where he has been visiting his daughter. Mr. Rule is one of the best citizens and this was his first trip to town in five years, although he lives only three miles above here—Paintsville Commercial.

While President Roosevelt's party were stopping at Dallas, Texas, early in the present week, they were entertained for several hours by Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark, of that city. Mrs. Clark, the hostess, will be remembered by her scores of Huntington friends as Miss Mary Vinson—Huntington Item.

The Blackburn case occupied the attention of the Circuit Court yesterday for the greater part of the day. The defendant Blackburn was indicted for stealing a horse of P. S. Matvins. The jury stood ten for conviction and two for a verdict of not guilty. This will mean a retrial at the next term of court—Cattelsburg Press.

Lexington, Ky., April 17.—News reached here today from Hindman, Boone county, of the death of James O. Fugate, a prosperous attorney and a friend of Howard, who was found in bed, and it is supposed heart disease was the cause. Only a short time since his law partner, B. S. Phillips, was adjudged insane and brought to the Eastern Kentucky Asylum—Ex.

A pickpocket got busy on the C. & O. excursion train going to Cincinnati, Sunday morning, and took a pocketbook from one of the passengers, who reported the theft to Detective Jack Bingham, who arrested a man giving the name of Jim Jones. Bingham thinks this is an assumed name and he is a well known criminal. He was lodged in jail at Covington to await his trial—Ashland Independent.

George W. Hager, a Baptist minister who has relatives all over eastern Kentucky, while at the head of a Baptist congregation, raised two-dollar bills to ten-dollar bills. A large number of bills were in circulation and Hager passed at least four of them.

He had one in his possession when he was arrested at Sheridan, Ky. He was tried in the United States court at Huntington and received eighteen months in the Moundsville penitentiary—Pike County Republican.

A special from Parkersburg reads thus: "Col. A. B. Winchester, former World's Fair Commissioner, was here on his way home to Buchanan from a trip up the Big Sandy and into the wilds of Pike county, Ky., where he has been on business connected with the lumber trade. He expected to find traveling in that region in a most state of simplicity and simplicity, and was surprised to find a railroad almost within hailing distance of Pikeville. This is a branch of the C. & O. which is being built from Ashland, and which will run fields of coal and timber. Col. Winchester stated that the line will reach Pikeville within a week or ten days. It will go on from there into the Clinch Mountains there some time."

Business is good here at Mahan. The big branch mill is running every day and cuts from 60,000 to 75,000 feet each day.

There are several old Kentucky boys here. Willie Chaffin went up to Centerville Sunday to see his old Kentucky friends. Among them are Sherman and George Kelley and John McCann.

Horton Woods will return to his home at Woodville, Ky., in the near future.

M. P. Jones is still here at Mahan. He has a good Sunday School and church every Sunday, and we have a good music school.

George Kelley, of Centerville, was at Mahan last week.

David Jordan went to Louisa last week.

There are several Pike creek and other boys coming in all the time. Pike Creek, of Wilkes, has returned to Mahan.

Your writer has been here for quite a while and is glad to say that Mahan is fast coming to the front. Richard Carter will return home before long.

Prestonsburg, Ky., April 18.—A phone message has just been received here which tells of a sad and serious affair, which occurred at Allen City, near the Mouth of Beaver, this afternoon, in which two men were mortally wounded and one man shot in the leg. The message states that the two men were drinking and went into the store of Joe Maggard, and shot a young Mr. Gibbs, son of "Black" Shade Gibbs. He, Gibbs, and Joe Maggard then shot each other. State was shot in the back, the bullet coming out over the nipple. Joe Maggard was shot twice. Dr. W. W. Richmond left at once for the scene of the shooting; also Deputy Sheriff A. C. Wright and Bill Maggard. State is married, while Maggard and Gibbs are young men and single.

Lexington, Ky., April 15.—Magistrate O'Brien held today held N. P. Howard, of Magdoffin county, to the grand jury in $500 bond to answer to the charge of unlawfully taking from H. S. Suddeth, E. F. Suddeth, who is a friend of Howard, was in court and declared that he was intoxicated when he came out the warrant and that the money was not taken from him but that he had given it to Howard to keep for him. He said that he had been upset by some persons who he thought were his friends to swell out the warrant against Howard and that he repaid the case dismissed. Howard refused to take the witness stand. Magistrate O'Brien said there was evidently something behind the trouble and he would hold Howard to the grand jury. Suddeth is a nephew of Senator Suddeth, of Magdoffin county, while Howard is a son of a Magdoffin, the county seat of Magdoffin, and came here he says, at the instance of the Harveys.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the blood is pure and rich. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier and blood builder. It is the only medicine that will give the blood the purity and richness that is necessary for good health.
